Air-Raid Wardens Plead Guilty as Spies

NEW YORK (AP).—Ernest Frederick Lehmitz, 57, and Erwin Harry de Spretter, 52, former Staten Island air-raid wardens, pleaded guilty today in the midst of their trial on espionage charges in Federal court. The court set September 21 for sentence. Penalties of up to 30 years in prison or death may be imposed under the law.

(Earlier Story on Page A-10.)